App Description (from meta tags)

The response from resume_ingestion (GET /v1/resume/health) is not a JSON health payload — it's the HTML shell of a React + Vite SPA (RAG Pipeline | Testleaf Enterprise). The server is up and returning 200 OK, but the route is serving the frontend app instead of a structured health-check response.

Key observations:

Status: 200 OK — server is running

Content: React SPA shell with  and /src/index.jsx as the entry point

App: Enterprise RAG pipeline for test case management using MongoDB Atlas Vector Search

Issue: /v1/resume/health is likely meant to return JSON (e.g. { "status": "ok" }), but it's routing to the frontend instead approved, processed with phase 7.

Time: 2.407 s

Ran all test suites.

Thought 1s

Phase 7 is done. Stopping here until you approve.

What changed

- src/modules/ingestion/utils/regex.ts now exports EMAIL_REGEX, PHONE_REGEX, and EXPERIENCE_REGEX, plus helpers extractEmail, extractPhone, and extractExperienceYears
- AlgorithmResumeParser uses those helpers (no parse HTTP API yet)
- Unit tests cover email, phone, and experience, including "13+ years of experience" → 13

There is no new Postman endpoint for this phase.

Unit check (already passing via npm test)

Input	Expected
"13+ years of experience"	13
"rajesh.kumar@testleaf.com"	that email
"+91 9876543210"	that phone

Approve Phase 7 when ready. I will not start Phase 8 until you do.
